laura washburn s poems make an odd union of the grotesque and the domestic they suffer a powerful realism while exercising a most eccentric republic of voices there is something strangely narrow and menacing in the dramatic speeches of washburn s poetry and yet there s also that wonderful sense of the voice that is great within us the emotions the common scandal of these poems come shockingly close to what we all know about ourselves but nevertheless find unspeakable this is a young and a brave poetry norman dubie from new york times bestselling author linda lael miller comes the tale of a woman who braved the heights of a passion beyond reason lauralee parker knew too well what drink could do to a man her own husband had died at the door of a town saloon with hymns and hatchets lauralee and the women of halpern s ferry closed down all the taverns all but the one jay mccallum was determined to save after his brother a saloonkeeper was found brutally slain jay had come to town ready to accuse lauralee only to be captivated by her winsome beauty the proud powerful man melted lauralee s defiant heart with the aching hunger of his love and with the sweet urgent ecstasy they shared but even as she surrendered to her rich and wild desire lauralee s joy was shadowed by the haunting mystery of jay s brother s death a mystery whose shocking outcome could forever destroy her future s radiant promise the other half of my soul by laura lee sometimes losing the love of your life is how you finally find yourself when laura lee lost the person who felt like the other half of her soul her world stopped turning grief became her constant companion and every day felt like learning how to breathe all over again but through that pain came an unexpected journey a journey of rediscovery spiritual awakening and the realization that healing isn t about moving on it s about becoming whole the other half of my soul is a deeply personal true story about love loss and the courage to rebuild when everything familiar has fallen away laura shares her raw experiences with honesty and grace offering comfort to anyone who has ever had their heart broken or faced the emptiness of loss since the loss of his lively charming wife to cancer six years ago minister paul tobit has been operating on autopilot performing his religious duties by rote everything changes the day he enters the church lobby and encounters a radiant luminous being lit from behind breathtakingly beautiful and glowing with life an angel for a moment paul is so moved by his vision that he is tempted to fall on his knees and pray even after he regains his focus and realizes he simply met a flesh and blood young man paul cannot shake his sense of awe and wonder he feels an instant and overwhelming attraction for the young man which puzzles him even as it fills his thoughts and fires his feelings paul has no doubt that god has spoken to him through this vision and paul must determine what god is calling him to do thus begins a journey that will inspire paul s ministry but put him at odds with his church as he is forced to examine his deeply held beliefs and assumptions about himself his community and the nature of love
